Brexit's impact on the EU

By Michael Kittredge

Recently the United Kingdom (UK) left the European Union (EU), but what effect will this decision have? The UK has the second largest economy in the EU (First: Germany). According to uk.reuters.com, "Germany seems likely to be asked to provide the largest share of the cash, [. . .] estimated at about €2.5 billion." Germany may now be relied on heavily, and the effect of the UK's decision may have several consequences.

Impeachment Begins

By Neel Singh

During all of American history, only two presidents have been impeached: Bill Clinton and Andrew Johnson. The other president who could have been impeached was Richard Nixon who resigned before he could be impeached. Impeachment is when the legislative branch uses its power to accuse the president of high crimes that may result in removal from office. These high crimes can include bribery, treason, murder, etc. Currently, Donald Trump is in the process of being impeached for a phone call with the Ukrainian president, Volodymyr Zelensky, in which he asked him to look into Joe Biden and his son, Hunter Biden.

Do you ever wondered what's in HCPSS's water fountains?

By Vijay Maheswaran

According to The Baltimore Sun, there were several cases of water fountains lead levels that exceeded federal standards in 32 Howard County schools. According to The Baltimore Sun, "Under a law passed last year, jurisdictions across Maryland are required to test for lead in public schools." Murray Hill has not yet been tested and will likely be tested in the future.

A woman in her 90s who lived in Compiègne, Northern France was having her property valued in preparation to sell her house. She thought the painting hanging above her cooker, was an old Russian artwork and later found out it was worth about $6.5 million. The artwork is a 13th century painting called Christ Mocked by Florentine painter, Cimbaue. The woman said she couldn't explain how she got the painting since it had been in her family for so long. Xavier F. Salomon, the Frick Collection chief curator, said: "This is a hugely important discovery."

Why Do Older People Hate New Music?

By Shreeya Thakre

Have you ever wondered why your parents don't like the music you listen to? Psychologists have proven music tastes solidify at around the age of 13 or 14, and they are unchangeable at around age 20. This is the scientific explanation as to why your mom doesn't like BTS as much as she likes the Beatles, or why your dad refuses to listen to Billie Eilish and listens to Bon Jovi instead. Their childhood music tastes just aren't what yours are.

Nationals Win World Series!

By Neil Chibber

On October 30th at 11:50 PM the Washington Nationals struck out

Michael Brantley of the Astros to win their first World Series in D.C. The Washington Nationals came in as the underdogs of the postseason. On May, 23 they had a 19-31 record, and only had a 3.4% chance to make the postseason, let alone win the world series. But eventually, that made it there and won the series 3-4 against the Houston Astros.
